"I JUST LOVE BUTTERFLIES BECAUSE THEY ARE COLORFUL AND GENTLE, AND I JUST KIND OF RELATED TO THEM WITH MY OWN PERSONALITY. I DON'T WANT TO HURT ANYBODY. DIDN'T WANT TO BITE. DIDN'T WANT TO STING, AND I STILL DON'T. I JUST KIND OF CLAIMED THEM AS MY LITTLE SYMBOL."

IN MEMORIAM HONOREE DOLLY PARTON

A LEGACY OF IMAGINATION, KINDNESS AND A BRIGHTER TOMORROW

Dolly Parton's Imagination Library is a book gifting program that mails free, high-quality books to children from birth to age five, no matter their family's income. After launching in 1995, the program grew quickly. First books were only distributed to children living in Sevier County, Tennessee where Dolly grew up. Imagination Library became such a huge success that in 2000 a national replication effort was underway. By 2003, Dolly Parton's Imagination Library had mailed one million books. It would prove to be the first of many millions of books sent to children around the world.

ANNIE BOSKO

MUSICAL GUEST

Annie Bosko is a singer-songwriter whose voice beams like a ray of California sunshine. Her sound epitomizes California Cowgirl with music that blends ranch traditions with So-Cal coastal aesthetics. Annie Bosko is a California-born country artist whose powerhouse vocals, magnetic live presence and unmistakable West Coast spirit have taken her from a farmer's daughter to some of music's biggest stages.

Dolly Parton's favorite opener, singer-songwriter Annie Bosko, joins The WIN Awards to headline its Dolly Parton musical homage. Rolling Stone dubbed her Artist to Watch. She continues to collaborate with musical legends like Willie Nelson, Dolly Parton and Adele, gracing stages from the Grand Ole Opry and Ryman Auditorium to Stagecoach, Rodeo Houston, CMA Fest, C2C: Country to Country, Tortuga, Faster Horses and Watershed Festival.

Her unmistakable voice has become equally familiar to sports audiences. Bosko has performed the National Anthem at major NFL, NBA, MLB, NASCAR and PBR events, including at Madison Square Garden and delivered a nationally televised performance on ESPN's Monday Night Football. Her partnership with Ariat International has further brought the worlds of country music and sports together, including a campaign alongside San Francisco 49ers quarterback Brock Purdy featuring her song "Honky Tonk Heartbeat." Before California Cowgirl, Bosko's self-titled EP introduced her to country radio with her first charting single, "Neon Baby," which she performed during her late-night television debut on Jimmy Kimmel Live! Since then, multiple singles have broken into the Top 50 at country radio, while her dynamic live show continues to win over audiences across the country and beyond. From the California farmland where she was raised to the Opry stage, NFL stadiums and arenas around the world, Bosko carries with her the same combination of grit, glamour and authenticity.
